

Annual Bearded Vulture Meeting 2018

Friday 9 to Sunday 11 November

FUNDACIÓN GYPAETUS[®]
por la conservación de especies amenazadas

JUNTA DE ANDALUCÍA
CONSEJERÍA DE MEDIO AMBIENTE Y ORDENACIÓN DEL TERRITORIO

Friday 9 November

Starting 8.00	Registration
09.00-09.45	Welcome address
Session I - Key note presentations
09.45-10.15	Rafael Arenas González	The plan for the recovery and conservation of necrophagous birds in Andalusia. Special reference to the bearded vultures
10.15-10.45	Francisco M. Rodríguez Peinado	The bearded vulture breeding center "Guadalentín". Twenty-two years of management.
10.45-11.15	Jose Ramón Benítez Izaguirre & Enrique Ávila López	The bearded vulture in Andalusia: a hope for the future
11.15-11.30	QUESTIONS AND DISCUSSION
COFFEE BREAK
12.00-12.45	Antonio Ruiz García	Thirteen years of struggle against poison, more significant advances
12.45-13.15	José Tavares	Future of the bearded vulture in Europe and the role of Andalusia
13.15-13.30	QUESTIONS AND DISCUSSION
LUNCH BREAK
15.30-16.00	Enrico Bassi & David Jenny	Philopatric settlement of bearded vultures in the Central Alps
16.00-16.30	Franziska Lörcher & Louis Phipps	Captive breeding or egg collection in the wild as best strategy for reintroductions?
16.30-16.45	Dean Veall	Public engagement in bearded vulture reintroduction projects
16.45-17.00	QUESTIONS AND DISCUSSION
COFFEE BREAK
Session II - Bearded vulture in captivity
17.30-18.00	Alex Llopis Dell	EEP results 2018 and expectations for coming years
18.00-18.10	Sarah Hochgeschurz et al.	First ever prothesis on a bearded vulture – the case of Mia
18.10-18.20	Francisco M. Rodríguez Peinado	First cataract surgery in a bearded vulture after a head trauma.
18.20-18.30	Jara López Jaraquemada	Cryogenic bone bank: applications in osteosynthesis. Study clinical case on bearded vulture
18.30-18.45	José Tavares	Bearded vulture reintroduction plan in Europe – update & release plans for 2019 and beyond
18:45 – 19:00	QUESTIONS AND DISCUSSION
Bearded Vulture Annual Meeting Dinner hosted by Junta de Andalucía

Saturday 10 November

Session III - Bearded Vulture conservation in the Alps
09.00-09.25	Mirco Lauper	IBM update and the need of having more wildborn birds marked
09.25-09.45	Louis Phipps	Quantitative and qualitative analysis of mortality of bearded vultures across the reintroduction projects
09.45-10.30	IBM partners	Update from the different monitoring areas in the Alps
10.30-10.40	Théo Mazet & Etienne Marlé & Franziska Lörcher	Gyphelp and Marty McFly - do we breed silky bearded vultures?
10.40-10.50	Feri Lainer & Hans Frey	Krum15 - Calcium deficiency and parental behaviour
10.50-11.00	QUESTIONS AND DISCUSSION
COFFEE BREAK
Session IV - Bearded Vulture conservation in Europe
11.30-11.50	Daniel Hegglin & Franziska Lörcher	Future releases in Switzerland and consequences for the whole Alpine population
11.50-12.10	Léa Giraud & Pascal Orabi	GypConnect - update about the release in Baronnies, Grands Causses and windfarm studies
12.10-12.30	Beatriz Arroyo & Martine Razin	Results from long-term monitoring of reproductive biology of bearded vultures in the French Pyrenees
12.30-12.50	Juan Jiménez	The bearded vulture is back in the Maestrazgo: a Mediterranean chronicle
12.50-13.10	Ruben Moreno-Opo Diaz	Bearded vulture Conservation Strategy in Spain: 20 Years of Action
13.10-13.30	QUESTIONS AND DISCUSSION
LUNCH BREAK
Session V - Relevant vulture conservation programmes and research
15.30-15.50	Ilka Champly	Origin of lead and saturnism risks for bearded vultures in the French Alp
15.50-16.20	Enrico Bassi et al.	The incidence of lead of hunting origin in vultures and golden eagle populations in south-western Europe. Results of a ten-year research
16.20-16.40	Fabrice Cuzin & Karim Rousselon	Bearded vulture in Morocco – an update of the current status
16.40-17.00	Raphael Néouze	Update about the status of bearded vultures in Ethiopia
17.00-17.15	QUESTIONS AND DISCUSSION
COFFEE BREAK
17.45-18.05	Sergio Vignali	Predicting areas of potential conflicts between Bearded vultures (Gypaetus barbatus) and wind turbines in the Swiss Alps
18.05-18.25	Ivelin Ivanov & Simeon Marin	First reintroduction of black vultures in Bulgaria and the role of griffons and black vultures for successful reintroductions of bearded vultures
18.25-18.45	Louis Phipps	A global survey of tracking raptors and vultures and the negative effects of different methods
18:45-19:00	QUESTIONS AND DISCUSSION
19:00	Conclusions & concluding remarks
Football Game and Folk Music Concert

Sunday 12 November

Field Excursions

Centro de Cría de Quebrantahuesos "Guadalentín" (Specialized Breeding Centre)

Demonstration of an anti-poison dog unit

Visit to the breeding territory of Tono and Blimunda